Quito's new airport, "Mariscal Sucre International" in Tababela, northeast of the capital, started to operate on February 20, 2013. Airport-Website: www.aeropuertoquito.aero.

The airport is about 35 km far away from Mariscal area, a ride of 45–60 minutes.

There are the following options to get to CASA HELBLING:

1. Direct transfer service: The simplest, most comfortable and safest way to get from the airport to CASA HELBLING, making use of our personal transfer service. Per previous order, we organize the transport. A clerk of the "TransRabbit" transport company will wait for you with, holding up a table with your name and "CASA HELBLING", after leaving the baggage area. The ride will take 45-60 minutes. The fee is 38 US$ for up to three people, each additional person costs an extra of 5 US$. In order to organize this service, we need your first and family name, date of arrival, name of the airplane company, flight number and previous arrival time. We will put the fare on your hotel bill so you won't have to pay the driver more than a tip for a good job.

This is the most comfortable option after a long-haul flight.

2. Taxi: Cab directly to Casa Helbling. The fare is 25 US$ and should be paid at a counter in the arrival hall.

This is the most flexible and fastest option.

3. Airport Shuttle: At a red colored office to the right of the airport's main exit, Bus Service "AEROSERVICIOS" sells tickets for 8 US$ per person for the trip to the old airport terminal in northern Quito (seniors and children 4 US$). As well tickets can be purchased by credit card on their website www.aeroservicios.com.ec but not within the bus of the driver. Transport of one suitcase and hand luggage is included in the fare, every additional item of luggage costs 2 US$. Departures are nearly every 30 minutes from the main exit round the clock. Schedule on the website. The buses have air conditioning and WiFi. Taxis from the old airport to Casa Helbling charge 6-8 US$ dependent on traffic.

The best option for persons travelling alone.

4. Public buses: The bus stop for public buses is situated on a small platform a few meters across from the airport's main exit. Until 10 pm green buses of the "El Quinche" bus company leave to the northern city bus terminal "Río Coca". The fare is 2 US$. Buy the ticket on a small basic desk on the platform. In the terminal Río Coca have a look for the city bus "Ecovia" in a close-by terminal. Entering that terminal you have to insert 0.25 US$ in a machine. If you don't have the coin, there is a counter where they will change you money. Get off at the station "Manuela Cañizares". Walk down Avenida 6 de Diciembre for about 4 minutes in the direction the bus was heading. You will reach a crossroads. Turn left. Diagonally you will see CASA HELBLING, the house with the blue metallic door and the big palm tree in front.

This cheapest option is only recommended during daylight hours with very light luggage. Pickpockets may be active on the Ecovia!
